

BUILDING HOPE TO END HUNGER - THE ROADRUNNER CLUB

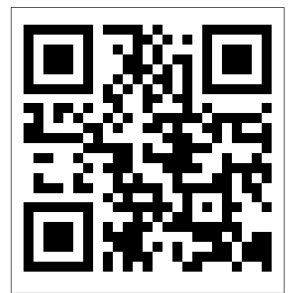

You can make a difference and help end hunger in New Mexico. Your contribution to Roadrunner Food Bank of New Mexico helps provide food and hope to nearly 40,000 children, seniors and adults every week. That figure is equivalent to feeding a city the size of Farmington every week.

As a private non-profit organization, Roadrunner Food Bank relies on donations from individuals, corporations, and foundations to fulfill its mission to end hunger. We are able to convert every $1 gift into more than 5 meals. In addition, 95 cents of every dollar goes directly into our mission to feed the hungry.

Giving is simple and provides one of life's most essential needs – food.

Roadrunner Club members commit to a minimum monthly gift of $10. Monthly giving allows Roadrunner Food Bank to plan ahead, respond to disasters and ensure that New Mexico's hungry can depend on Roadrunner whenever they need food. You can give through your debit/credit card, through an automatic checking/savings withdrawal, or scan the code to the right with your smart phone to make your contributions.

Imagine what a monthly Roadrunner Club gift can do for a hungry person:

- $20 a month provides a child with a weekly backpack of food to eat over the weekend for four weeks.
- $32 a month allows us to distribute 100 pounds of produce.
- $50 a month allows us to distribute 250 meals to hungry people.
- $80 a month provides a food box to 4 seniors with enough food for 30 meals.
- $125 a month allows us to distribute 2,500 pounds of food through our Mobile Food Pantry.

Consider becoming a Roadrunner Club member and help us end hunger in New Mexico. To join, please fill out the back of this form. For more information about the Roadrunner Club, contact annamarie@rrfb.org or 505.349.8921.
