CHURCH ELIGIBILITY
501 (c) (3) Status

A Roadrunner Food Bank agency must be a 501 (c) (3) charity or equivalent. Section 508(c) of the Internal Revenue Code provides that “churches, their integrated auxiliaries and conventions or associations of churches “ are exempt from the law requiring nonprofits to apply for tax exempt status under section 501 (c)(3) of the Code.

Although churches are not required to have a determination letter, Roadrunner Food Bank is required to keep documentation of 501(c)(3) status in each agency’s file.

As a church, one of the following documents must be provided for this purpose:

1. Your church’s 501(c)(3) letter from the IRS - a 501(c)(3) letter is a federal letter issued by the IRS and is NOT the same as your state tax-exempt information. Many denominations or larger church groups such as the PCUSA (Presbyterian Church USA), Catholic Charities, etc. have a blanket 501(c)(3) determination letter which is available through the main office or headquarters. These organizations have a public listing of all ministry organizations affiliated with their group. If your church is a part of a denomination or larger church group, please send a copy of their 501(c)(3) determination letter and a letter or public listing connecting your church with this denomination or larger group.

2. If your church is not part of a denomination or larger church group, it may still qualify as a 501(c)(3) organization if it meets certain requirements as determined by the IRS. On the back of this page is a Church Qualifier Form with an explanation of these IRS requirements. If your church falls into this category, please complete the Church Qualifier Form.

3. If the name of your hunger relief program is not the same name as you church, you must provide a letter on church letterhead stating that your hunger relief program is a program of the church. (Example – your church name is the Holy Church of the Desert Sun, but the name of your hunger relief program is God’s Blessings Food Pantry, you must then include a letter, on Holy Church of the Desert Sun’s letterhead, stating that God’s Blessings Food Pantry is a program of the Holy Church of the Desert Sun.)
